THE STORM IN THE WEST

It Covered an Area of Two Hundred Square Miles.

IMMENSE DAMAGE TO PROPERTY.

The Loss of Life, However, Is Comparatively Small, Though a Few Additional Fatalities Are Reported—Growing Grain Mowed Down by Wind.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 9.—The storm during the past three days covered a large territory, and reports show that the entire eastern watershed of the Rocky mountains from the Nebraska and Iowa lines to Texas was swept by a storm. The storm focus embraced an area of two hundred square miles, with the southwestern corner of Missouri as a center. The greatest loss of life is reported from Winona, Mo., where eleven corpses have been found, with as many more missing.

At Baxter Springs, in southwestern Kansas, five were killed and seven were seriously injured by a cyclone that accompanied the storm. One person was drowned at Columbus and two at Ottawa, Kan. At Van Buren, Ark., a mother and her babe were drowned. A family of five were encamped on the bank of Fish creek, in the Indian Territory. Nothing of them or their belongings was found except a part of their wagon on a pile of driftwood.

At Thomasville, Mo., where the rainfall was four inches in one hour, five persons were lost. Unconfirmed reports are received of loss of life as follows: Three at Fayetteville, Ark.; one at Paolo, Kan.; one at Richards, Kan., and six of a hunting party in the Indian Territory. This gives a known and probable loss of forty-three lives. This total will be increased when the receding waters permit a thorough search.

Fields of grain that promised the most bountiful yield in many years were swept bare of vegetation. In several instances the seas of rain was abetted in their work of destruction by tornadoes. It is too early yet to sum up the loss, but the total is appalling, and those to whom the angry elements spared life have little left to sustain it. The stories are so similar that a statistical summary is all there is left to tell.

Four Inches of Rainfall.

FREDONIA, Kan., July 9.—A blinding rain storm, lasting forty minutes, accompanied by high winds from the west, passed over this locality, extending three miles north. Fully four inches of water fell, washing away sidewalks, and for a time the Missouri Pacific tracks were under water. At Lafontaine, Kan., nine miles south, the residence of R. Giles was blown off the foundation and burned up, and at New Albany, Kan., eight miles west, the roof of the brick school house was blown away, damaging the building to the amount of $1,000, also the Christian church in course of construction was leveled to the ground. The family of John Cox, consisting of husband, wife and several children, while crossing a small stream, were thrown from a buggy into the water, but fortunately managed to reach a landing.

Swept All Before It.

ARDMORE, I. T., July 9.—A terrific electric, rain and wind storm swept over this section Sunday night, doing great damage. In certain localities the force of the wind equaled a tornado. The main force of the storm seems to have spent itself about fifteen miles southeast of Or, near Marietta, I. T., where a number of houses were blown down. Bob Brazil's house was blown from over the heads of himself and family, and they had a narrow escape. Mr. Hudson was killed by lightning at Bob station, twenty miles south of here. The large store of M. F. Michal & Co. was blown down. The wind swept everything in its path for an area of a mile and a half and several miles in length. Corn fields, fences and buildings were laid down.

A Freight Train Blown Over.

NEWTON, Kan., July 9.—A very heavy wind storm passed over Harvey county and did a great deal of damage, but caused no loss of life. The path of the storm was from northwest to southwest, and covered a wedge shaped area fifteen miles wide at the northern portion and extending a length of nearly fifty miles. Two-thirds of the windmills in the path of the storm are down, and sheds and barns without number are wrecked. A freight train was overturned at Canton. Orchards were badly damaged, and at least half of the immense fruit crop was badly leveled, but it will not be seriously damaged.

RUNNING DUEL IN CHICAGO.

A Would-be Robber Shot and Killed by a Policeman.

CHICAGO, July 9.—In western desperado style a man supposed to be C. E. Cole assaulted and attempted to rob P. J. McGloin, in his saloon at 61 Adams street, in the heart of the business district of Chicago, last night. After seriously wounding McGloin the thief escaped and made the most remarkable race for liberty ever seen in the streets of Chicago. After firing into the mob that pursued him, and seriously wounding three citizens, he was run down and killed by Officer Rosenthal opposite the entrance of the Auditorium, on Congress street.

The wounded are: P. G. McGloin, saloon keeper, three wounds in the head, will recover; H. M. Sternberg, shot in the abdomen, will probably die; Samuel Stone, shot in the right leg, will recover.

McGloin was alone in his saloon when Cole entered and ordered a glass of beer. He then asked the saloon keeper to get him some meat that he claimed to have left in the ice box of the saloon. McGloin walked to the entrance of the ice box, and Cole, drawing a revolver, ordered him to go inside and stay there. McGloin turned and struck the robber in the face, nearly knocking him down.

The two men then clinched and fought desperately. Cole managed to get one arm free and with his revolver he pounded the saloon keeper viciously, inflicting three severe wounds on the head. The robber then broke loose and rushed to the street, followed by the bleeding saloon keeper and an excited crowd. Officers Rosenthal and Daly joined in the chase, and Cole fired several shots into the crowd. Then Rosenthal, after ordering the fugitive to surrender and receiving a shot in return, fired with fatal effect.

The Elks Will "Get Together."

ATLANTIC CITY, July 9.—This city is overrun with Elks, who are attending the third annual convention of the grand lodge of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, which opened at Morris Guards' armory at 10 o'clock today. The convention promises to be the greatest in the history of the order. The last batch of delegates to arrive were those from Philadelphia, who came down this morning 200 strong. At a meeting of Grand Exalted Ruler Edwin B. Hay and Meade T. Detwiler, of Harrisburg, who was elected grand exalted ruler by the Buffalo faction, yesterday it was agreed to compromise the differences existing between the two factions. Mr. Detwiler is here with full authority to act, and it is now a settled fact that the order will be united before the convention adjourns, which will probably be on Friday.

To Enlarge New Jersey's State Prison.

TRENTON, July 9.—The New Jersey state prison building commission yesterday afternoon opened about twenty-five bids for the construction of the new 200 cell wing and hospital for the prison. The contract for putting up the new building was awarded to Charles W. Kafer, of this city, for $45,342, and for constructing the cells to the Pauley Jail and Iron Building company, of St. Louis, for $36,807.12. The amount which the legislature appropriated for the work was $150,000.

Shot Him for Cursing Her.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 9.—At Kiamichi, I. T., Sallie Harkins, a young white woman living near that place, shot and killed John Burgess, a negro, who cursed her because she charged him with burning her father's house. The negro admitted the crime, and said he was sorry she was not in the house when it burned. Miss Harkins replied by putting two bullets into the negro's head.

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—Archbishop Kain, of the Roman Catholic diocese of St. Louis, has made a decision that removes the ban placed by some priests on Grand Army funerals. Under his ruling members of the G. A. R. attending funerals may enter the church wearing their uniforms and insignia, and may conduct funeral services in accordance with their ritual in Catholic cemeteries.

A Maryland Sensation.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., July 9.—Moneah Metz, bank director and one of the wealthiest residents of Smithsburg, near here, was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Seller on the charge of assaulting the 10-year-old daughter of John Weller. He gave bail for his appearance at a hearing here. The alleged crime was committed a week ago. Dr. E. T. Bishop reports the child in a critical condition. Metz is 65 years old.

Strikers Effect a Compromise.

SHARON, Pa., July 9.—After non-union men from Pittsburg had started to work at the Sharon Iron company yesterday the strikers asked for a conference with the operators. The old demand for an advance was made by the strikers and a satisfactory agreement was reached by which the firm gives the men an advance on Aug. 1. The non-union men were sent home today.

McLaughlin Gets a Stay.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Judge Gaynor yesterday granted the application of Ex-Inspector William M. McLaughlin for a writ of reasonable doubt, which will act as a stay pending the appeal of his case. The decision was based upon the claims made by the defense that "the deliberation of the jury was marked by unusual passion."

INSURGENT DEFEATS.

News of the War in Cuba from Spanish Sources.

REVOLUTIONISTS LOSE HEAVILY.

In One Engagement Alone the Number of Killed Was Two Hundred and Eighty, and Many Were Wounded—Entrapped Spaniards Fight Their Way Out.

HAVANA, July 9.—A severe engagement has taken place between the Spanish troops under the command of Major Aznar and General Rabi, an insurgent commander, at the head of a large force. Two hundred and eighty of the latter were killed.

It appears that Major Sanchez received information to the effect that a force of 1,500 insurgents, under the command of Rabi, had occupied strong positions near Manzanillo, province of Santiago de Cuba. Consequently the major sent a messenger to his superior officer, Colonel Azuar, proposing to the colonel that they should join their forces and make an attack upon the insurgents. The messenger, however, fell into the hands of the insurgents, who hanged him, and sent word to Major Sanchez, in the name of Colonel Azuar, to make an attack upon the insurgent position from a point which compelled the troops to approach the insurgents through a narrow thoroughfare.

Major Sanchez, recognizing the difficulty of the movement he was apparently directed by his colonel to execute, sent forward advance pickets of twelve and thirty men, respectively, under the command of two sergeants, with instructions to push forward to the right and to the left of the narrow thoroughfare referred to, and to be careful to take up advantageous positions from which they could protect the advance of the main body of the troops under Sanchez's command. The sergeants cleverly followed out the instructions given them.

Major Sanchez then advanced carefully upon the insurgent position, protecting his men by every inequality of ground. But, as he expected, the troops were no sooner inside the defile than the insurgents attacked them in force. The first charges of the insurgents were made with enthusiasm, and their machetes played havoc among the troops, who were hemmed in and unable to deploy on account of the narrow road they had to follow. But it was here that the two advance pickets under the two sergeants came to the rescue. From their elevated position they kept up a continuous and well directed fire upon the insurgents within range, and eventually, assisted by a charge of the Spanish troops, compelled them to retreat outside of the defile.

The troops pushed forward after them, and once in the open they charged the insurgents with great courage and compelled them to retreat hastily. The insurgents then sought refuge in the strong position they had previously left in order to attack the troops, but the soldiers carried this position and put the enemy to flight, with the loss upon the field of 280 killed. The troops lost fifty men in killed and wounded.

In another fight reported from Neguita, the insurgents under Rabi lost five killed any many wounded, while on the side of the troops one officer and four soldiers were wounded.

News of another defeat of the insurgents has reached here from Bellamotas, in the province of Santa Clara. Bellamotas was garrisoned by an officer and fifty soldiers who occupied a fortified barrack building. The place was attacked by the insurgents under Castillo. The enemy built a large fire to windward of the baaracks and the flames communicated to that building. The insurgent leader then sent word to the officer in command of the garrison, the soldiers forming part of the union battalion, notifying him to surrender under pain of being burned alive with his men.

The officer sent word to Castillo in reply that he preferred to die fighting or be burned to death than surrender to the insurgents. In the meanwhile some of the soldiers succeeded in extinguishing the flames, which threatened to consume the barracks, and while they were doing so the remainder of the garrison kept up a continuous fire from their rifles on the insurgents. The latter replied from every point, but the garrison held out gallantly for two hours. Suddenly Spanish reinforcements appeared, and the insurgents immediately retired, leaving many dead and wounded on the field.

The Lone Highwayman Again.

PERRIS, Cal., July 9.—The Redding and Alturas stage was robbed yesterday two miles above Mortriss Station by a lone highwayman. Supervisor Bass and a lady passenger were not molested. The highwayman took the Wells Fargo box and registered mail sacks, securing perhaps $100. The robber is described as five feet and a half tall, and many believe it to be the veteran stage robber Brady, as officers claim that he took that direction.

Veterans to Colonize in Georgia.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 9.—P. H. Fitzgerald started for Georgia last evening. He goes to close the purchase of land for the old soldiers' colony. He said he has $125,000 in bank with which to begin business. The colony has taken options on 125,000 acres of land in Irwin and Wilcox counties, Ga. Mr. Fitzgerald says he thinks he will secure 30,000 acres now, and that money from the subscribers to the colony scheme will come on until the entire $350,000 necessary to take up all the land is available.

Senator Quay at Wilkesbarre.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 9.—Senator Quay was warmly received upon his arrival in this city last night. Nearly all the prominent Republican workers called on him. Senator Quay was much pleased over his reception. He said: "I see my Luzerne county friends are still loyal to me." The reception lasted from 7 until 9 o'clock. The senator's followers say he will get at least two-thirds of the delegates from this county.

A BRAVE MOTORMAN.

Stuck to His Car When it Carried Him to Death.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., July 9.—An electric street car running between this city and Wellsville got beyond the control of the motorman last evening and plunged over a bridge into a run, falling thirty feet. The car was smashed, and it was miraculous that any of the passengers escaped alive. As it was, only James Hamilton, the motorman, was killed, and he met death at his post after doing all he could to stop the car.

Thirteen others were more or less injured, among them: Mooley Coburn, a farmer, badly hurt in the back, will probably die; Mrs. Maggie McDole, of this place, badly injured about the head, back and shoulders, will probably die; Frank Green, a boy, hurt about the head, may die; Mrs. Frank Anderson, Rochester, Pa., badly bruised; Frank Anderson, Rochester, Pa., badly bruised.

The passengers were crushed and jammed into the wreck of the car, and had not rescuers quickly arrived on the scene some of them would have been drowned, as the run was dammed and the water rose rapidly about the wreckage.

THE SITUATION AT ELKHORN.

Threats of the Strikers Causes Gravest Apprehension.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., July 9.—The situation is very grave in the Elkhorn region. Colonel White, Governor MacCorkle's private secretary, says the danger is imminent and that trouble may occur at any time. A telegram from Governor MacCorkle to Colonel Tierny says that if any more parading with guns is done by the miners the troops will be sent immediately.

Threats of burning the tipples are made, and this, with the derailment of cars, has created serious alarm. The heavy guard of United States marshals, together with Governor MacCorkle's telegram, Colonel White thinks, has had a beneficial effect. The company here is in readiness to move at once if needed. Colonel White left for Elkhorn last night.

Negro Laborers Kept as Prisoners.

SAN ANTONIO, July 9.—Dr. F. Troilling, a prominent physician of this city, who was detailed one month ago to visit the negro colony in Tlahuilio, in the state of Durango, Mexico, and investigate the real situation and condition of the negroes who were removed from Alabama and Georgia last winter, has returned. He said there were 500 negroes in the colony, walled in and closely guarded. Fully 50 per cent. are suffering from a disease resembling malaria, from which a large number have died. The doctor says the colony company is developing 52,000 acres of agricultural land and overworking the negroes. As the latter are citizens of the United States, the attention of the department of state at Washington will be called to the condition of affairs at the colony and an official investigation requested.

Not a Man Applied for Work.

CLEVELAND, July 9.—About 1,500 striking workmen were gathered about the American Wire company's works yesterday. The company had placed notices that the plant would be started. A large detail of police was on hand, but there was no trouble of any kind. Not a man applied for work, and the starting of the works was postponed for the time being. No attempt was made to resume work at the Brackes wire nail or H. P. Nail company's works. Nearly 3,000 men are idle on account of the strike.

Canadian Cabinet Crisis Imminent.

MONTREAL, July 9.—It is stated freely today, by members of parliament who know, that the dissolution of the Dominion parliament is near at hand. The French members have for some days been ready with a vote of censure of the government for their inaction in regard to the Manitoba school question, but the Liberal English members refused to support it. MacKenzie Bowell is to resign shortly and Hon. John Haggart, minister of railways and canals, is said to be the coming premier.

Wholesale Jail Delivery.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 9.—A wholesale delivery from the county jail occurred at Hendersonville during the night. The prisoners picked the locks to the cages, cut a hole through the plastering of the ceiling, then passed out through a ventilator by tying their blankets together and letting themselves down. Bloodhounds were telegraphed for, and it is thought the prisoners will soon be recaptured. Six made their escape.

Murdered by a Playmate.

ALBION, Mich., July 9.—While playing ball two boys, Gustave Nauss, aged 12, and Ernest Kussrow, aged 14, became involved in a quarrel. Kussrow had a picket in his hand which he had been using as a bat, and struck Nauss on the head with it. The blow ruptured one of the large blood vessels at the base of the brain, causing instant death.

Troops to Prevent a Lynching.

RICHMOND, Va., July 9.—Governor O'Ferrall was yesterday called upon by the civil authorities of Clarke county to furnish military protection to Henry Robinson, a negro on trial there for committing an outrage on a white lady. The governor ordered the Monticello Guards, of Charlottesville, to the scene.

Another German Asylum Scandal.

BERLIN, July 9.—A surprise visit by an official committee made to the private lunatic asylum of Hans Kannen, near Amelsduren, belonging, like the notorious Marlaberg asylum, to the Alexian brotherhood, revealed such gross scandals that the provincial administration talks of closing it and rebuilding.

THE PEACE WITH CH[INA]

Ex-Secretary Foster Declares It Will be Permanent.

JAPAN'S DEMANDS REASONABLE.

The American Adviser of the Chinese Government Declares That Our Government Came Out of the Diplomatic Contest with Better Grace Than Any Other.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster arrived in Washington yesterday from China, where he has taken conspicuous part in the diplomatic branch of the China-Japan conflict. He is fatigued with his long journey, but otherwise in vigorous health, notwithstanding the hardships incidental to the closing of the eastern war. Mr. Foster brings a fund of information on the status of the China-Japan troubles and the interesting events of peace negotiations, in which he took a personal part.

In answer to inquiries Mr. Foster made a statement in which he said that there was good reason to expect permanent peace between Japan and China as the result of the treaty of Shimoneseki. The terms demanded by Japan may, he said, under the circumstances be regarded as reasonable, especially in view of the retrocession of the Liao Tung peninsula. The treaty has been observed and carried out by China with scrupulous good faith. Her conduct in this respect has created a very favorable impression in Japan.

The loan just concluded through Russian influence will enable China to pay the first two installments of the indemnity. These two installments cover half of the indemnity, and the balance, extending over six years, will be a comparatively easy burden for the Chinese government if any skill is shown in the management of the imperial revenues. The country has great resources, and has never yet failed in its financial engagements. Hence the peace concluded at Shimoneseki is not likely to be broken on account of the shortcomings of China. If a rupture occurs it is more likely to be brought about by the intermeddling of the European powers.

The intervention of Russia on account of the terms of peace was not unexpected, and is not unnatural in view of her predominating interest in the orient, especially on the North Pacific coast of Asia. That France followed the lead of Russia created no surprise in the east, but that Germany should unite with them in a display of force against Japan was entirely unexpected, and is not yet understood. British residents in China and Japan are very bitter in criticism of their government for its obstention in the matter. They allege that its failure to join with the other powers in rearranging the terms of peace has lost for their country much prestige and has left Russia a free hand in its influence and control at Pekin.

Of all the countries diplomatically concerned in the contest the United States has come out of it with better grace than any other. From the first her interest has been recognized by both belligerents as purely disinterested, her only desire being to render such service as would bring about an honorable and lasting peace. The conduct of the state department in its very delicate relations with both combatants has been marked by good judgment and by few mistakes, and the good offices of our ministers and consuls in China and Japan, where they represented the interests of both governments, have been very useful, and are highly appreciated by both.

Being asked why he declined the invitation to remain in China as the adviser of the government Mr. Foster said that he had spent the greater portion of the past twenty-five years in foreign lands, and that while his residence abroad had been generally a pleasant one, he had found no country equal to his own native land, and he desired to spend the rest of his days in his own country and his own home. He confessed that if the invitation had come five or ten years earlier he would probably not have declined it.

Ruth and Esther Are Not Jealous.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 9.—In company with Joseph Jefferson, Mr. [illegible] and spent nearly all of yesterday trolling fishing at East Sandwich, where Mr. Jefferson has a private stream. The party left early in the day and did not return until nearly six o'clock. Ruth and Esther did not drive with their nurses to the village, as they have done almost every day since their arrival at Gray Gables. The children remained at their play, often chattering as they ran about the piazza and lawn over the little sister so recently introduced to them. Both children seem delighted with the idea of having another little one in the household. Telegrams of congratulation continue to arrive. To an inquiry as to the condition of Mrs. Cleveland and the baby Dr. Bryant reiterated his former words: "Mother and baby are both doing well."

Pennsylvania Outlaws Convicted.

KINGWOOD, W. Va., July 9.—The trial of the Pennsylvania outlaws was concluded by the jury's verdict of guilty. The outlaws are Bud Smitley, Hank Harvey and Archibald Patterson. The jury found each guilty of unlawful shooting, the penalty for which is imprisonment from one to five years in the penitentiary. These outlaws shot and dangerously wounded Sheriff Shaw, of this county, who, with a posse, was attempting their arrest last April for horse stealing. The prisoners live in Fayette county.

TO ONE WHO BIDS ME SING.

Non eadem est ætas, non mens.—Horace.

You ask a "many winter'd bard"
Where hides his old vocation?
Accept—the answer is not hard—
A classic explanation.

"Immortal" though he be, he still,
Tithonus-like, grows older,
While she, his muse of Hindoo hill,
Still bares a youthful shoulder.

Could that too sprightly nymph but leave
Her useless grace and beauty,
They might, between them both, achieve
A hymn de senectute.

But she—she can't grow gray, and so
Her slave, whose hairs are falling,
Must often his Doric flute forego
And seek some graver calling—

Not ill content to stand aside,
To yield to minstrels fitter
His singing robes, his singing pride,
His fancies sweet and bitter.

—Austin Dobson in Temple Bar.

HE MET HIS MATCH.

Expert Testimony Comes High, but We Have to Have It.

The scene was the private laboratory of the greatest chemical analyst known to science, J. Bigleg Bighead, M. D., F. R. S., P. D. Q., etc. There was a timid rap on the door, and a dark featured man entered, saluting with obsequious grace and handing the great expert a card, on which was the firm name of "Baggem & Fleecem, Private Detectives."

The celebrated toxicologist glanced at the card and motioned the visitor to a seat. "Happy to make your acquaintance, sir. What can I do for you?"

The swarthy browed visitor glanced around to make sure that they were alone, then drew forth from the folds of his cloak a small bottle containing some mysterious fluid.

"Sir," he began in undertones, "this bottle contains part of the contents of a man's stomach. The deceased died two days ago under the most suspicious circumstances, after having dined with a very beautiful woman. I want expert sworn testimony—an ironclad, all wool, yard wide, no rebate, expert analysis. What's your price, sir?"

The great man held the bottle up to the light, then pulled a string disclosing a scale of prices on the wall, which the visitor read, as follows:

To find poison and swear to it	$1,000
Not to find poison and swear to it	2,000
To find poison and swear I didn't	4,000
Not to find poison and swear I did	5,000
To "pull up" the jury with learned technicalities, so that it won't matter whether I did or didn't	1,500
To boomerang 400 yards of Latin at the judge	1,000
To bring in other great men to swear for our side, each, at	1,000
To cite brilliant authorities whichever way you wish, per cite	250
To throw up enough scientific dust to befog and muddle the judge, jury, prosecuting attorney and myself, per shovelful	250
Consultation, beginning with this one, per minute	200

"Now, sir," continued the great toxicological expert, "on which side of the fence are you? Are you employed in the interest of the poisoner or the poisonee?"

But the detective had finished the last line of the scale of prices, and his hair stood on end. Slowly he arose, looked at his watch, saw that he had been there 30 seconds, drew forth a roll and counted out $100, pressing it into the hand of the great expert. Then, with a look of envy and admiration, he fled just in time to save another hundred.—San Francisco Argonaut.

What Ailed Him.

A gentleman of Berwyn, Pa., who is employed with an electrical light company, has two boys aged 3 and 5 years respectively. The older one, through frequent conversations with his father, is familiar with electrical terms, appliances and probabilities.

Little 3-year-old one cold morning was fumbling with a half frozen wasp that had landed on the window sill. The wasp thawed out, and recovered much of his usual animation, a fact proved by a succession of yells on the part of the boy.

"What's the matter with Dawson?" cried the father as he rushed from an adjoining room.

"I 'spect he touched a live wire," replied the brother, with a scarcely perceptible grin.—Youth's Companion.

A VAST CAVERN.

Discovered While Digging a Well at Moran, Ind.

Last winter the school building at Moran, Ind., was burned, and several weeks ago Trustee Shields sold the old grounds and purchased a lot on S. F. Murray's farm, west of town, as a site for a new building. A few days since men began digging a well, and at the depth of 38 feet a hard rock was struck, which necessitated blasting. After the smoke had disappeared the workmen were surprised to find, instead of the water expected, that the bottom had dropped out, and they looked down into what appeared a bottomless pit.

On the following evening three young men descended by means of ropes to a depth of 70 feet, where they found a landing, with a narrow passage leading downward at an incline. With much difficulty the party followed the passage, which gradually increased in width to about 50 feet. In the moss covering the sides of the cave were discovered curious reptiles, and huge bats flew about their heads. A swiftly rushing stream several rods in width, which was filled with eyeless fish, stopped their progress, and they were forced to return.

Next day the search was resumed, and after much difficulty the stream was crossed and the cave explored for over a mile. Deep gorges, seemingly bottomless, were encountered, from which a white mist ascended, and a rumble as of falling water was heard. A lot of glittering metal, supposed to be gold, was brought back by the explorers, but it proved to be worthless.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

FICTION NOT IN IT.

The Story of the Colima Disaster Furnishes Much Exciting Reading.

One does not have to turn to Stanley J. Weyman or Anthony Hope for thrilling stories of adventure. The newspaper accounts of the experiences of the survivors of the Colima satisfy the ordinary taste for romantic horror. One Mexican who reached a raft went crazy from drinking salt water. Three men found themselves afloat on a part of the cabin roof and managed to drag on it a keg of claret which drifted near them. After long effort the keg was opened, and two of the shipwrecked men drank of its contents until they were brutally drunk.

One went to sleep, but the other quarreled and finally fought with his sober companion. They struggled there until the intoxicated man was knocked overboard. His antagonist pulled him back to the rude raft. The combativeness was knocked out of him by his cold plunge, but he continued to drink the wine until he fell into the sea. This time there was no help for him, and he was drowned. When the other drunken man awoke, he heeded the warning of the wretch's example and drank only sparingly. The two were at last rescued. There is much fiction far less exciting than this narrative.—New York Tribune.

To Boom Our Chinese Trade.

The flour millers of the Pacific coast, in conjunction with the agents of the Great Northern Railway company, are making efforts to build up a big flour business with China. The representatives of the big Chinese companies say that if the masses of China once began to use flour they would never go back to rice, and if flour can be placed within their reach a demand will quickly be created so large that all the flour mills on the Pacific coast will not be able to meet a tenth part of it. President Hill of the Great Northern thinks flour could be carried to China and sold there for 1½ cents a pound and return cargoes secured to make a line of steamers pay. If the matter promises well, the Great Northern will put on a line of steamers between Seattle and Chinese ports.—New York Sun.

Du Maurier's Forthcoming Novel.

Those who have been gladdened by the report that Mr. Du Maurier is writing another novel will have to possess their souls in patience and wait awhile.

A member of the firm of Harper Bros. said recently that, although more than two-thirds of the new story is completed, the work will not be ready for the publishers until the December of 1896. Mr. Du Maurier is one of the most painstaking of authors. He considers the mere writing of a book as a small part of the work and spends much time revising and correcting it.

As to the work itself, it will be longer than Trilby and will run through about 12 magazine numbers, in which form it will first be published.

Narcoti-Cure

Cures the Tobacco Habit in 4 to 10 Days or Money Refunded.

Use All the Tobacco You Want Till Your "Craving" is Gone.

NARCOTI CURE is the only remedy in the world that acts directly on the nerves and drives the nicotine from the system in from four to ten days. It leaves the patient in better health than before taking, and is warranted free from any injurious ingredients.

NARCOTI-CURE is popular because it allows the patient to use all the tobacco he wants while under treatment, or until the "craving" and "hankering" are gone. It is then no sacrifice to throw away tobacco forever.

NARCOTI-CURE is sold at the uniform price of $5 a bottle, and one bottle cures.

Money refunded if a cure is not effected when taken according to directions.

AMHERST, MASS., Feb. 8, 1895.
THE NARCOTI CHEMICAL CO.,
Springfield, Mass.

Gentlemen:—Replying to yours of the 1st, would say that I have used tobacco for 46 years, and of late have consumed a 10-cent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was only 11 years old, and have never been able to give up the habit until I took NARCOTI CURE, although I have tried other so-called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days, all "hankering" for chewing disappeared, and in four days more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad effects whatever. I am gaining in flesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit I would say, use NARCOTI-CURE.

Yours truly, W. N. WHITE.

If your druggist is unable to give you full particulars about Narcoti-Cure, send to us for a Book of Particulars free, or send $5.00 for a bottle by mail.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and ads to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

YOU GET MARRIED!

WE DO THE REST.

You will need a home; we will sell you a lot on such easy terms and without interest, that that part is easy. You will need money to build with. We can arrange that. You will want to live so near the business portion of the city that it will not cost thirty to fifty dollars to come and go. We can sell you a lot nearer than the Soldiers' Monument, five minutes walk. You will want a good sized lot. Some of ours are 190 feet in depth. You want good high ground. We keep it (no, we sell it) You want your purchase to increase in value. That is precisely the point we urge about Richmond Hill lots. These lands are so near the center of town that they are daily increasing in value. In fact there is no reason why you should not get married, at least once, and own one or more of these lots. No girl wants to marry a man with no prospect of a home, or who does not own a home on Richmond Hill. If you want a home get married and come and see us. The rest is easy.

Death Rather Than the Asylum.

ST. JAMES, Minn., July 9.—George P. Johnson, clerk of the court of Wantonwan county, and prominent in state politics, committed suicide yesterday by pounding his brains out with a claw hammer. After beating his head almost to a pulp he finished his awful work by clawing his head to pieces with the opposite side of the hammer. Mr. Johnson was committed to the asylum about a year ago and was released the last of April. Recently he became worse, and the knowledge that he would be again sent to the asylum drove him to suicide.

Arbitrary Military Guards.

RICHMOND, Va., July 9.—In a letter published here the board of trade of Pocahontas, Va., charge Major W. E. Simons, who has command of the Virginia troops there, with being too autocratic, and intimates that the soldiers are being used in the interest of the coal operators. The statement says that persons are made to work against their will and that innocent citizens are arrested, placed in prison, kept there for days and never given a civil hearing. Major Simons is also charged with making false statements in his letters with reference to affairs there.

Murdered His Father-in-Law.

LIVINGSTON MANOR, N. Y., July 9.—Joshua Townsend, 65 years old, was murdered yesterday by his son-in-law, George Bretthauer. Townsend found his son-in-law engaged in mowing the grass on his property, and ordered him out of the field. Failing to drive him away Townsend cut a stick and threatened to whip him. Bretthauer suddenly drew a pistol, and placing it against the old man's forehead fired. The bullet entered at the left eye, and Townsend fell dead. Bretthauer then came to the village and gave himself up.

The Fake Interviewer in Paris.

PARIS, July 9.—The Paris Figaro yesterday published an alleged interview with United States Ambassador J. B. Eustis, in which he is quoted as not yet having decided as to his candidacy for the presidency, and expressing decided opinions on Canadian annexation and Cuban independence. When questioned in regard to the matter Mr Eustis said: "I have not been interviewed and have not consented to or authorized the publication of an opinion from myself on any of the questions discussed in the alleged interview."

Dynamite for Widow Chambers.

CENTRALIA Wash., July 9.—Mrs. Mattie Chambers, a widow, has received an infernal machine containing dynamite through the mails. It is claimed that it was sent to her by a rejected suitor who is now in Raleigh, N. C. The curiosity of the postmaster saved the woman's life. He saw sand paper protruding from the end of the box, and pried the lid off without igniting the material. The police authorities are investigating.

Annapolis Went Democratic.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 9.—Annapolis city went Democratic yesterday in a municipal election. The Democrats have five of the eight aldermen. John H Thomas was re-elected mayor by about twenty majority. There was a good deal of cutting of Democratic candidates.

A Clergyman's Will Set Aside.

TRENTON, July 9.—The Mercer county orphans' court yesterday set aside the will of the late Rev. Dr. John Miller, of Princeton. He left property valued at $30,000, but the will was not properly executed, the witnesses to the instrument testifying that they did not know what the paper was which they signed. The property, nevertheless, will go to Dr. Miller's three daughters, as provided in the will. Dr. Miller was tried for heresy by the Presbyterian General Assembly a few years ago, and was excommunicated. The Cumberland presbytery admitted him to membership later and he continued to preach. He was one of the ablest theologians in the country.

The Law Was Not Violated.

PIEDMONT, S. C., July 9.—Sunday evening Ira Johnson, a young negro, shot and mortally wounded Frank Langford, a young white man of Marietta, S. C., without cause. The negro at once tried to make his escape, but was so hotly pursued that he took refuge in a house a short distance away. He was promptly pulled out and tied, and in about thirty minutes over 200 people were around him, some with guns, pistols and ropes, crying "lynch him." A few cool heads were present, and finally prevailed on the crowd not to lynch him. The negro was taken to the Greenville jail. Everything seems quiet here, and no further fears of lynching are now entertained.

Dangerous Shoals Unguarded.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—From observations made by the lighthouse board it appears that the second attempt to erect a lighthouse on the dangerous Diamond shoals, off Cape Hatterns, N.C., has failed. Just what steps will be next taken to guard the important coastwise traffic against the perils of this veritable graveyard of ships has not been determined. These shoals lie off Hatteras about ten miles. The difficulties thus far encountered far exceed those overcome in the case of the celebrated Eddystone light.

Their bodies were frightfully mutilated by the fall to the sidewalk.

Laibach Again Shaken by Electricity.

TRIENTZ, Austria, July 9.—A severe shock of earthquake occurred yesterday at Laibach, Austria, which damaged many houses. Laibach was the victim of a series of severe earthquake shocks on the night of April 14, of this year, and they continued with abating severity during April 15, 17 and 18. Nearly all the inhabitants fled from the town and camped in the field, and were confirmed in their fears by another shock on April 22. After they had commenced to return to the damaged town there was again a shock on April 29, which renewed the terror of the citizens. Since that time there was a slight shock on May 31.

Silver Cliff's Gold Excitement.

SILVER CLIFF, Colo., July 9.—Excitement increases over the Willette gold camp southeast of Silver Cliff. New strikes are being made daily, and business men and housekeepers are becoming prospectors. A general miners' meeting has been called to make camp rules and organize the district. Picks, shovels and Winchesters are numerous.

Many Drowned by a Cloudburst.

BUCHAREST, July 9.—A cloudburst on Saturday night destroyed half the village of Olanesci, in the district of Valcea. Many persons perished and ten bodies have been recovered. In other villages there was much damage.

A Substitute For Gold.

A French technical paper, The Journal de l'Horlogerie, declares that a new amalgam has been discovered which is a wonderful substitute for gold. It consists of 9½ parts of copper to six parts of antimony. The copper is melted and the antimony is then added. Once the two metals are sufficiently fused together a little magnesium and carbonate of lime are added to increase the density of the material. The product can be drawn, wrought and soldered just like gold, which it almost exactly resembles on being polished. Even when exposed to the action of ammoniacal salts of nitrous vapors it preserves its color. The cost of making it is about a shilling a pound avoirdupois.

English Oleo.

The oleomargarine factory of the Earl of Jersey, near London, turns out 5,000 pounds of oleomargarine every week. It was the London Saturday Review which once called oleomargarine "that American crime against humanity and the cow," but it would probably regard "Jersey" oleomargarine as the proper thing.—New York Tribune.

A poet bursts into song in the Hartford Times:

With pleasure. There are several beds of them in Poquetanuck, we believe, where they may be said to be real thick. Also on Portipaug hill, in Franklin, and Candlewood Hill in North Stonington, and at Hog pond, in Old Lyme. In fact, there are 4,750 square miles of the Nutmeg State where the daisies grow. A conundrum of far greater interest to Connecticut farmers would be, Where don't the daisies grow? Our obliging poet friend will please kindly tackle that.—Norwich Evening Record.

THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MIDDLETOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

Tuesday, July 9th,

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor visits Middletown one day each month. Will be at 21 Broom street, Port Jervis, Wednesday, July 10th. Office hours from 10:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The stimulating effect of free wool on woolen manufacturing is shown by the fact that in the first six months of this year, thirty-eight new woolen mills have been projected, as compared with forty-five during the whole of 1894.

Since January 1st, the railroads have ordered 25,000 new freight cars at a cost of $10,000,000. If the crop yield is as large as now seems likely, railroad men say this new equipment will not suffice to handle the increased business.

Henry Clews says the business situation is 100 per cent better than it was a year ago, and he is confident the improvement will continue for he says the courage of the business people of the country is 500 per cent. stronger than it was last summer.

The State Lunacy Commissioners are so anxious to secure control of New York city's insane asylums that they have abandoned all the conditions with which they loaded down the special act, of which Mayor Strong refused to approve, and have arranged a plan by which on certification by Mayor Strong that the city asylums should come under State care, they will take charge of them under the authority vested in them by the original State care act. As a preliminary step the Commissioners are preparing a letter to Mayor Strong, calling his attention to the bad condition of the asylums, and this letter is to be the basis of his certification that State care is necessary.

—The Bullville Reserves played the Montgomery Jrs. a game of ball on the morning of July 4th on the Driving Park. It was a runaway for the home team, being mere practice for their scheduled game with the Walden Deceivers, in the afternoon, which was postponed by rain. Steger's pitching, marked by thirteen strike outs, was the feature of the game. The boys will probably play their postponed game next Saturday. The score by innings:

KILLED BY HIS SON-IN LAW.

A Family Feud at Livingston Manor Ends in Murder—Joshua Townsend Shot by George Brethauer.

Joshua Townsend, sixty-five years old, a quiet and industrious man, was shot and instantly killed at Livingston Manor, Sullivan county, about 10 o'clock, yesterday morning, by his son-in-law, George Brethauer.

There had been bad blood between the parties for some time and they had been in litigation over some property. Yesterday morning, Brethauer began cutting a piece of grass which Townsend claimed to own. Townsend ordered Brethauer to stop cutting the grass and when no heed was paid to his command is said to have tried to stop the mowing by using force, whereupon Brethauer drew a revolver and shot the old man in the head. The pistol was fired at very short range and Townsend fell dead in his tracks, never moving a muscle after the bullet crashed into his brain.

Ever since Brethauer became a member of Townsend's family there has been trouble. Mrs. Townsend, who has been an invalid for years, sided with Brethauer and his wife, and Townsend's home was broken up. The litigation between father-in-law and son-in-law stirred up much bad blood on both sides, and yesterday's tragedy does not much surprise those who were familiar with the family feud.

Townsend bore a good reputation in the community in which he lived, and it was the general opinion that he was very badly treated by his family. Since yesterday's tragedy, a very strong feeling has developed in Livingston Manor against Brethauer.

He claims that the shooting was done in self-defense and that when Townsend attacked him he believed that his life was in peril.

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Mr. G. B. Horton's Fiftieth Birthday Duly Honored at the Hide and Leather Club.

The fiftieth birthday of Mr. Gurd B. Horton was celebrated, yesterday, by his friends of the Hide and Leather Club in the banquet room of that famous organization, but the gentleman himself, though present in spirit, was not there in the flesh. He is still confined to his room at his summer home in Goshen from the effects of the injury he sustained on July 4th, while coasting at Midway Park. It was proposed that the event should go over until Mr. Horton could appear upon the scene, but he would not have it so, very properly arguing that the time for a birthday celebration is the day itself. When Mr. Horton's health was proposed he was called up by "wire," and, in response, he is credited with having made the best speech of his life.

Shot His Wife, Killed Himself

A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

A Man Injured and Two Wagons Damaged.

About 12:30, yesterday afternoon as Michael Doyle, of New Hampton, was driving down the steep hill near ex-Sheriff Johnson's place, near this city, with a large flag stone on his wagon, the stone slipped forward against the horse, frightening the animal and causing it to run away.

Mr. Doyle was thrown off and the stone fell upon his legs, bruising him quite badly, but fortunately broke no bones.

The wagon collided with one driven by a peddlar, upsetting the latter's wagon and throwing the occupant out. He was not injured, but one axle of his wagon was broken and a wheel was dished.

Mr. Doyle gave the man an order on a wagonmaker to have the damage repaired, and then walked on after his horse which had disappeared over the hill with only the front wheels of the wagon attached to him.

The stone, which was a large one, and cut for a well curbing, was broken.

Strange Accident to an O. and W Engineer.

He was unconscious for several hours. He was taken to his home and his physician thinks he will be out in a week or two.

The act was passed for the protection of the deer recently released from the breeding park in the Catskills.

STORIES OF THE DAY.

She Would Be Sister, but Drew the Line at Being Uncle to Him.

Macallister McIlhenny was a native of Brooklyn.

And he was glad of it, for he well knew that by a mere accident of birth he might have been a native of Philadelphia.

Thus do we ever see the great law of compensation getting in its equalizing work.

In other respects Macallister McIlhenny was almost a prize package.

With an ambition exceeding his environment he had fallen in love with a New York girl.

And she was such a girl as New York might well point at with pride.

Conspicuous by her inconspicuity of attire, she was a dream of pink and white simplicity, a harmony of color, a melody of sweetness, a mathematical perfection of good form, a symphony of loveliness, a lesson in style and a glory in garniture.

No wonder Macallister fell in love with her.

And she was kind to him, for a New York girl is as full of tact as a little dog is of fleas.

As time wore on his uncertainty of purpose wore off, and at last he decided in his own McIlhennian manner to propose to her.

Repairing to her palatial residence by the nearest elevated, he passed beyond the portals and awaited her coming as he had so often done before, but never with such a thumping of his heart, for Macallister McIlhenny had never proposed to any girl except a Brooklyn girl, and he knew this one now confronting him was a gray horse of an entirely different color.

As she entered the spacious drawing room Macallister McIlhenny's heart went down into his boots, but they were too tight for him anyway, and the heart soon retreated to its normal place.

For a few brief and transitory moments he tripped along the primrose path of dalliance and dabbled in the delights of conversation concerning the weather.

Then he shook out his emotional topsail to the breeze and squared away.

Going down upon his knees, as is the custom in the place of his nativity on such occasions, he grabbed her lily white hand in his, and, with a beseeching look heavenward, he thus addressed her:

"Dear one, I plight thee my troth. I plead thee my loyal love. I give thee all I have and ask that thou wilt give me in return only so much as thou wilt. With that I shall be more than satisfied."

Possibly there was in his words a lack of the tropical fervor the New York girl had been accustomed to, or it might have been that her native superiority merely asserted itself. In any event she rose equal to the occasion and above it, as a New York girl may always be depended upon to do in trying moments.

"Mr. McIlhenny," she said, with charming candor, "I had hoped when this moment arrived, as I knew it was bound to arrive, to say to you that I would be a sister to you. And you have not entirely dashed that hope to the ground, for I do say it now, and with the deepest sincerity, but, Mr. McIlhenny, the relationship must end there. I cannot also be an 'uncle' to you, and if you want to put up all those things named in the invoice you have just submitted I must ask you to go to the small shop around the corner with three gilded spheres over its door. This is not the place to realize on them."

For a period of duration embraced in nine ticks of the beautiful ormolu clock on the mantel Macallister McIlhenny was in a bewildering bedazzlement; then he rose slowly to his feet, and, picking up the remnants referred to by the young woman, he went forth into the shadows of the great city and got on a car going to Harlem.

But he didn't know it until he asked a Harlem policeman where Gates avenue was.—New York Sun.

Billy McHale's New Hat.

The friends of Billy McHale, who is popular with the bankers and brokers along Third street, are having a quiet laugh at that young man's expense. One of McHale's friends, while passing a hat store during one of the late sizzling hot days, noticed him inside engaged in negotiating for the purchase of a straw hat. Now, Billy is particularly tidy in his dress, and like most people possessing that characteristic is somewhat sensitive regarding adverse criticism. Knowing this, the waggish friend determined to play a practical joke. Despite the broiling heat on the joker visited 20 or 30 of Billy's friends in different parts of the city and related the fact of the purchase of the hat. He then arranged to have McHale at a certain restaurant that evening and instructed all the friends to drop in one at a time and remark in an offhand way: "That's a nice hat you've got, Billy, but it's too old for you. That shape was intended for a man 50 years old." Billy started in to explain to the first six or eight friends that he was tired of flippant straw hats, as they made one look so giddy. Then he swore at the salesman, but finally, when 25 friends had criticised the new headpiece, Billy grew furious, and tearing the unlucky hat from his head he dashed it to the floor and with a wild yell jumped upon it. "There's the hat. Take it. Keep it, and you can all go to blazes!" The next day Billy appeared in his old hat.—Philadelphia Record.

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I nav'nt lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4½ inches and weigh 250lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called 'Keeley Cure,' 'No-To-Bac,' and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself entirely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.

Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for thirty-three years, and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system became affected considerable. I've often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health. I consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most painless and reliable remedy for to use, to break the tobacco habit.

Yours truly, JOHN RODDEN.

Dear Sirs—I have used chewing tobacco very extensively the past thirty years. I tried so-called "No-To-Bac" and other remedies, but without success, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I consider using tobacco while taking the preparation and find that the horrible craving for tobacco has left me, and I consider myself cured. I can fully recommend "Baco-Curo" to any person wishing to break themselves of the tobacco habit.

Yours very truly, D. S. WHITE.

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr James Reid, of the town of Burnside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box he began to lose his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.

Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S. Sawyer of Atlantic, County of Cass, State of Iowa, have been an inveterate smoker of tobacco, using three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1894. Began taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit. "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man. Hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain, Yours truly,

WM S. SAWYER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Gentlemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully, P. H. MARBURY,
Pastor C. P. Church, Clayton, Ark.

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb 4, 1895.

This is to certify that I, F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo." I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end if kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason I could not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. I did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then, bought the goods and thank God and all concerned. I am a sound person to-day. Hoping the same may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain, Yours respectfully,

F. D. KRAEMER.

"Pshaw!"

Her brow clouded.

However, her fears were groundless, as not one of the opposing team, the far-famed Hackensack Giants, could keep his eye on the ball.—New York World.

She Was Welcome.

A charming young woman, who lives on the west side, and her young man found the Summit street cars packed to the doors last Friday evening when they started home from the Auditorium. Nothing daunted, Miss West Side sought a place upon the step of the platform. She had barely room for one foot, and as the car lurched and heeled she clung to Charley's big, strong hand. Occasionally, under cover of the darkness, she squeezed it tenderly, because—well, because she and Charley are engaged. And so she held on to the hand for many blocks.

"Charley," said she, "aren't you about worn out holding me on the car with your one poor, tired hand?"

"What?" cried Charley in a horrified tone.

Mademoiselle looked up and then dropped the hand frantically. She had been holding to and squeezing the hand of an entire stranger, a young fellow with black mustache and a pleasing eye.

"I beg a thousand pardons!" gasped mademoiselle.

"Don't mention it," replied the stranger. "You were entirely welcome."—Kansas City Star.

Under the combined action of wind and wave the noble ship careened sharply to leeward.

The chair and its fair young occupant were thrown against the bulwarks.

"Don't be frightened, Gwendolen, darling," exclaimed the young man, clawing wildly at her. "I'll take care of you. Don't get scared. You can't go overboard."

THE COMMON COUNCIL.

PROCEEDINGS OF MONDAY NIGHT'S ADJOURNED MEETING.

Wreck to be Purchased for Excelsiors—Didn't Want to be Sued—Ordinance to Regulate the Speed of Cars—Conduit in Thrall Park to be Extended—A New Switch Proposed—The Mills Avenue Grade—The Street Paving Matter—The O and W. and the Mayor's Actions Have a Lively Tilt and the Inevitable Knocks Out Both Paving Resolutions.

The adjourned regular meeting of the Common Council was held, last evening. Present, President Dorrance and Aldermen Bastian, Bowler, Close, Funnell, Hirst, Mance, Reed and Sinsabaugh.

A petition for two lamps on Mills avenue, one at Hoffman street and the other near Bennett street, was referred to the Lighting Committee.

TO PURCHASE A SEAGRAVES TRUCK FOR EXCELSIORS.

A report of the committee of Excelsiors upon the selection of a new truck was read. It recommended the Seagrave truck and asked that it be purchased, if the model is approved by Council.

Mr. Reed, of the Fire Committee, reported that the committee approved of the Seagrave truck and as they could not see the necessity of advertising for bids, and as the company wants the truck before the fire parade, the committee recommended that authority be given the proper parties to make the purchase.

A communication from the manufacturers of the Rumsey truck, containing drawings and specifications, was submitted, the price named being $1,290 with side ladders, and $1,265 without side ladders; weight not to exceed 3,800 pounds.

The price quoted for the Seagrave truck was $1,450.

Mr. Mance offered a resolution empowering the Mayor to sign a contract for a truck of such make as is decided upon by the committees. Adopted.

DON'T WANT TO BE SUED FOR A CITY BILL

Mr. D. D. W. Schoonmaker, Foreman of Excelsiors, said that a bill for $15 for lodging for a man in stables, and the use of a sleigh by Wood & Baldwin, had been presented to Council long ago. He had recently been notified by a lawyer that unless the bill is paid, suit would be brought against him personally. He explained that the bill was contracted during the blizzard last winter.

On motion of Mr. Sinsabaugh the bill complained of by Mr. Schoonmaker, of Excelsiors, was ordered paid.

A request of W. H. Wiggins that a deed be given to Thomas Watts for the Ballman property bought at tax sale Sept. 8th, 1892, was read. It stated that the time limit for redemption had passed some time ago and due notice had been given to all parties interested. The matter was referred to the Law Committee.

THE COTTAGE STREET SEWER.

Mr. Reed moved that the Cottage street sewer be extended to the north side of the lands of J. W. Bowers.

Mr. Reed stated that the Sewer Commissioners asked that the pipe for the extension of the Cottage street sewer ordered at the last meeting be changed from eight inches to nine inches to conform to the pipe already laid.

The City Engineer stated that over 500 feet of the sewer already laid is of eight inch pipe and the Sewer Commissioners were evidently laboring under a misapprehension, and the matter was finally dropped after considerable time had been wasted.

TO REGULATE SPEED OF CARS.

Mr. Reed offered the following ordinance, which was adopted.

An ordinance relative to the rate of speed of electric cars in the city of Middletown.

The Common Council of the city of Middletown do ordain as follows;

That, Hereafter no electric car or cars shall be run through or upon any of the public streets of the city of Middletown, N. Y., at a greater rate of speed than ten miles an hour and any person, persons or corporation violating this provision or ordinance shall forfeit and pay for each offense the sum of twenty-five dollars.

This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

A motion of Mr. Sinsabaugh that a naphtha lamp be placed on Liberty street below Wallkill avenue was referred to the Lighting Committee.

Mr. Bastian moved that the Mayor be authorized to pay the certificate of indebtedness at the Merchants and Manufacturers' bank amounting to $5,983 98. Carried.

Mr. Reed said the cost would be about $600 and wanted to know what fund it should be paid from, and when told that it would come from the surface sewer fund objected to doing the work now, as the fund was insufficient.

Mr. Hirst moved to lay the matter until the next meeting.

WANTS TO BUY A CITY LOT.

Mr. Reed said a man had offered him $50 for a lot owned by the city, on the corner of Academy avenue and Everett street

On motion of Mr. Funnell the matter was referred to the Committee on Public Grounds, to report at the next meeting.

A NEW RAILWAY SWITCH PROPOSED.

Mr. Mance said the Traction Co. asked permission to put in a switch at the junction of West Main street and Wickham avenue.

Mr. Reed wanted the matter referred to the Railroad Committee to see if it was necessary, and also if satisfactory to the people in that locality.

Mr. Hirst said the triangle could be made a pretty spot and he did not believe in giving up such places without consent of the property owners.

The matter was referred to the Railroad Committee.

THE MILLS AVENUE GRADE.

The Street Committee reported on the complaint of the grade on Mills avenue.

Mr. Bastain said he found no water there, but the grade might have been made higher on one side. Mr. Funnell thought the grade was perfect. Mr. Bowler said he could find no water. Engineer Smith said the fall was seven and one-fourth inches in fifty feet.

Mr. Sinsabaugh reported a dead tree in front of G. B. Adams' premises, and Mr. Reed moved that the Street Superintendent cut it down. Mr. Bastian said he had one in front of his house, which he hoped they would order cut down but they didn't.

On motion of Mr. Reed the Street Superintendent was directed to repair depressions on Depot street.

Mr. Hirst wanted to know if the Mayor had done anything about getting crushed stone for the streets He thought the streets should be put in repair now.

Mr. Bastian said the Mayor had promised him to be present and explain his position in that matter.

On motion of Mr. Funnell the engineer was directed to prepare a map for a proposed sewer on Wisner avenue.

STREET PAVING MATTERS.

Mr. Reed called up his resolution to pave East Main street and asked that it be passed, and this was the beginning of a lively tilt between what are known as the O. and W. and Mayor's factions.

Mr. Mance said he had a resolution in ahead of Mr. Reed, but the President thought Mr. Reed's had the preference by having been called up first.

Mr. Mance assured Mr. Reed that he would vote for the Main street resolution.

Mr. Reed said he would vote for Mr. Mance's if his own was passed.

Mr. Mance then said that while he would vote for Mr. Reed's resolution he would remind the members that a resolution to pave Wickham avenue had been passed, last year.

Mr. Reed made the point of order that the act died with the old Council.

Mr. Mance insisted it was not dead until rescinded.

Mr. Mance again expressed his belief that his resolution should be acted upon first, and insisted that it be called up.

Mr. Reed attempted to make a parliamentary ruling, but Mr. Mance objected to one man power, and insisted on a ruling of the chair.

POINTS OF PARLIAMENTARY LAW.

Mr. Dorrance searched the parliamentary rules, but failed to discover anything that would help him make a decision.

Mr. Mance offered an amendment to Mr. Reed's motion that his resolution to pave Wickham avenue be taken up first.

Mr Reed said it was out of order, but the President ruled to the contrary.

Mr. Reed said it was an injustice

A vote was taken on the amendment, which resulted as follows: Ayes: Messrs. Close, Funnell, Mance and Dorrance. Nays: Messrs. Bowler, Hirst and Sinsabaugh. Not voting: Messrs. Bastain and Reed, who claimed the amendment was out of order. The amendment was declared carried.

Mr. Mance then moved the adoption of his resolution, and said that if it prevailed he was willing to say, to satisfy the other side, that if it could be shown that there is money enough left after paving East Main street to pave Wickham avenue, he would be willing that Main street should be paved first, but the Wickham avenue job was unfinished work left over from last year, and should be completed whether Main street was paved or not.

Mr. Reed moved to lay Mr. Mance's resolution on the table, and the motion was declared carried.

Mr. Reed moved his resolution, and Mr. Mance moved it be laid on the table indefinitely.

Mr. Reed demanded the ayes and nays, and the vote resulted in five to four for the motion of Mr. Mance.

Mr. Mance said he wanted to make plain that he was not opposed to [illegible] Main street paving, but in- [illegible] and all his [illegible] work ordered on Wick- [illegible] them to build a footst [illegible] year, was partially [illegible] lotment until a bond should be finished [illegible] as a guarantee for [illegible] to blame for the [illegible] ay refused a day [illegible] ovements to rest [illegible] with her, and which charged Mr. [illegible] ity he ground she [illegible] he had declar- [illegible] gun.—Chicago T[illegible] would not do—stand in the way of public improvements

Mr. Reed made a motion to adjourn, but it was lost.

Mr. Bowler reported that an addition was being built to the Russell House in violation of the fire limit ordinance. Referred to the Mayor.

TO EXTEND THE CONDUIT IN THRALL PARK.

Mr. Sinsabaugh moved that the conduit in Thrall Park be extended to the line of the lands of Thrall Hospital, a distance of about 200 feet.

A motion to adjourn was lost, and the paving question was again brought up. not for action, but in order that the members of each faction might free their minds regarding the stubbornness of those on the other side.

Mr. Bastian said he had lived on East Main street over twenty years, and but little money had been expended upon it. He did not favor paving Main street because he owns property there, but because it was badly needed. Other sections of the town had more than their share of work. He thought the North End people had enough now.

Mr. Reed said he had heard more than one person say that O. and W. men should not be elected to membership in the Council.

Mr. Mance sustained his position that the Wickham avenue work was in an unfinished state and should be completed.

Another motion to adjourn and there was more talk—enough in fact to fill several columns of this paper, and it was not until after midnight that a motion to adjourn prevailed.

Paid $5 For Killing His Neighbor's Pet Cat.

Arthur Parkins paid a fine of $5 and costs in Recorder's Court, on a charge of discharging fire-arms within the city limits. He shot a pet cat belonging to Miss Nellie Clark, a neighbor. His defense was that the cat had killed several small chickens, but the Recorder held that that was no excuse for violating the ordinance.
